

 Thursday 7 July

Nathan Williamson – Piano

Radcliffe Centre 11 am

Moving Schubert

MOZART Sonata in F major K.332

SCHUBERT Sonata in A major D.959

Nathan Williamson has established a reputation as one of the UK's most individual and versatile young artists, active as composer and pianist. He has recently performed at some of Europe's most prestigious venues, including the Amsterdam Concertgebouw, Lucerne Concert Hall, Bolzano Festival, Purcell Room, St John's Smith's Square, St Martin's in the Fields, Palais du Residence Brussels and the Atrium du Magne Paris.

CONCERT sponsored by Mr and Mrs John Wrigley

Price £4

Jenny Broome – Harp
Frances Mason – Violin

Radcliffe Centre 1 pm

A lovely combination

PAGANINI Sonata

SPOHR Sonata Concertante op.115

ADRIAN WILLIAMS Spring Sonata

The Adrian Williams Sonata is a wonderful celebration of spring. The composer describes it as "tonal, emotional and high-spirited". The composer was described by Yehudi Menuhin as "a master of intricate patterns and forms".

Frances and Jenny met when they were both invited to perform for a charity concert in Old Heathfield, Sussex where they discovered a mutual interest in the music of Spohr for violin and harp. They are now working towards a recording of Spohr's violin and harp repertoire.

Price £4

Wicked Women

Radcliffe Centre 8 pm

The Archers come to Buckingham!!

A unique evening celebrating outrageous women throughout the centuries, starring two of The Archers' most popular ladies: Sara Coward (Caroline) and Sunny Ormonde (Lilian).

Sparkling wit, wisdom and wanton women – real and fictional – from Cleopatra to Shirley Valentine, Lady Macbeth to Lady Bracknell. Sketches, poems, jokes and anecdotes, with a chance to put your questions to Sunny and Sara about life behind the scenes in The Archers. Musical director: Malcolm McKee.

CONCERT Sponsored by
Boyd Coughlan Ltd
Independent Financial Advisors &
Employee Benefit Consultants
www.boydcoughlan.co.uk
01280 823030

Price £10 (under 18s £5)

